Important service notes

- Prices are package prices or starting prices and may vary according to scope, complexity and content requirements.
- Delivery timelines begin after the required business information, content, images and feedback are received.
- Third-party subscriptions, premium assets, domain registration and external software costs are separate unless explicitly included in a proposal.
- SEO and AI-search services improve structure and discoverability but do not guarantee rankings, traffic, reviews or AI recommendations.
- Work outside the agreed scope is discussed and quoted before it begins.
